

7TH ANNUAL NATIONAL COMMUNITY COLLEGE
PEACEBUILDING SEMINAR
TEACHING ABOUT GLOBAL CONFLICT AND PEACEBUILDING
George Mason University
School for Conflict Analysis and Resolution
Arlington, VA
October 31 to November 3, 2019

PLANNED ACTIVITIES

(Subject to change)

Thursday, October 31, 2019 (10 a.m. – 8 p.m.)

- Peace, Pedagogy, and the Power of Today's Global Conflicts – Daryn Cambridge (Training Resources Group)
- National Park Service tour of monuments
- Visit to U.S. Institute of Peace
- Welcome Dinner

Friday, November 1, 2019 (8 a.m. – 5 p.m.)

- Using Media – Holly Piepenburg (Pulitzer Center on Crisis Reporting)
- It's High Time for Peace Education – Colman McCarthy (Center for Teaching Peace)
- Experiential Peacebuilding – Ana Patel (Outward Bound Peacebuilding)
- Visit to the U.S. Diplomacy Center

Saturday, November 2, 2019 (8 a.m. – 6 p.m.)

- Peace Pedagogy: How We Teach Matters as Much as What We Teach – Tony Jenkins (Global Campaign for Peace Education)
- From Conflict Resolution to Peacebuilding – Chip Hauss (Alliance for Peacebuilding)
- Session on Refugee Issues – Jesuit Refugee Services
- Peacebuilding Through the Arts – Colby Jeffers (Musician/Performer/Composer)
- Revitalizing the BLUE PLANET: Water as the (Un)Necessary (Re)Source of Conflict - Nancy Wood (Bristol Community College/Biodiversity for a Livable Climate)

Sunday, November 3, 2019 (8 a.m. – 3:00 p.m.)

- Careers and Programmatic Development – David J. Smith (George Mason University)
- Alumni panel (past attendees share about their work)
- Teaching Empathy through a Humanitarian Simulation – Lena Choudhary (Montgomery College/Forage Center for Peacebuilding and Humanitarian Education)
- Free Time to Visit DC